

ROYAL ULSTER YACHT CLUB BOOK CLUB

Have you always resisted joining a book club?

Are you concerned that discussion, and objective analysis will ruin your love of books?

Are you a bibliophile and simply love reading?

Do you want to discover new books?

If your answer is 'yes' to any of these questions then RUYC Book Club is meant for you. We are a group of men and women who enjoy a wide range of literature and sharing it with like minded people, who want informality and craic in the relaxing ambience of the Gloucester room and who want to discover new books.

The book for March 31st is The Bolter by Frances Osborne but if this does not suit, members simply bring the book they are reading currently.

There is no pressure just pleasure so please join us from 20.00 – 22.00 on the last Tuesday of each month. Places are limited to ten and are allocated on a first come first serve basis so please ring Brenda Lindsay 028 9145 4737 asap to secure your place.

Finally, remember what Samuel Taylor Coleridge said about readers:-

'Readers may be divided into 4 classes:-

Sponges, who absorb all they read & return it in almost the same state only dirtier
Sand- glasses, who retain nothing & are content to get through the book for the sake of getting through time.

Strainer- bags, who retain merely the dregs of what they read.

Mogul-diamonds who are equally rare and valuable, who profit by what they read and enable others to profit from it too.'

Which type are you? It really does not matter - all are welcome in the RUYC book club
